

Royce Peeling Green provide accountancy services for private companies of all sizes, small listed businesses, owner-managed and family enterprises and not for profit organisations across a wide range of sectors. Many other firms of accountants also do this - so why are we different?

accountancy professionals

First and foremost our people are trained accountants with experience of putting together management accounts, financial statements and tax computations. We are not just career accountants; we understand the mechanics of producing financial information and where the pitfalls can lie.

director led service

We believe in utilising the skills of our most experienced staff where they can be most effective; you will always have access to the relationship director throughout the service delivery process.

tailored approach for every client based on understanding your business

We expect to have a relationship with the key decision makers in our clients' businesses not just the key finance staff. By properly understanding their views on the key risks facing their business and how they seek to mitigate those risks we are better able to design an advisory service and accounting solution which focuses on those areas.

Our book-keeping/management accounting function can stand alone as a service we provide to clients. However, we are often involved in other aspects of advising our clients such as tax planning or strategic consultancy. Through interaction at the processing stage and client knowledge garnered we can offer a joined up service which ensures our clients receive the best possible advice across a wide range of their interests.

commercially focused recommendations for change and improvement

Whilst carrying out the essential book-keeping service we will evaluate the key controls in operation in your business, advise you how well they operate and where there may be weaknesses or scope for improvement.

high technical standards and quality deliverables

Our staff receive the training necessary to keep them abreast of the ever changing demands of financial reporting standards. Just as important, they are part of a culture which has an affinity with our clients' outlook on business.

RPG Business Advisory Services

Royce Peeling Green provide accountancy services for private companies of all sizes, small listed businesses, owner-managed and family enterprises and not for profit organisations across a wide range of sectors. Many other firms of accountants also do this - so why are we different?

value for money

Our team has large firm experience combined with small firm attention to detail. Our cost structure enables us to offer very competitive rates in comparison to bigger firms. We will agree with you what information your staff can produce and a timetable for the regular preparation of financial information which meets your requirements and assists you in running your business. This clarity together with our online accounting solutions helps us to be efficient and keep cost to a minimum.

good reputation in the business community

Royce Peeling Green is over a century old and we have many clients who we have had the privilege to serve for many years. The firm is well known in the local financial and commercial community and is known to be a very credible financial advisor.

why are these factors so significant?

This is what our clients tell us they like about our firm and what makes us a valued partner in their businesses.

If you struggling to meet the constant demands of timely financial management information and regulatory bureaucracy, and you believe your current advisor does not tick all of the boxes you require we would be delighted to meet with you to see if we can help. Our contact details are:
